

I resent the abuse of public Trust by Papas Broadcasting using the public airways and repudiation of their own mission statement, using the airways to broadcast THEIR political views, giving free air time, to their Political party of choice & not offering equal air time to opposing parties. Is this the public's airways or their private realm?